New website for Plasteel®

VALLEYFIELD (Quebec), July 1st, 2014 – As the wheel weights market continues to shift toward lead-free wheel weights, Plombco is putting the spotlight on its Plasteel® product line.

Among other advantages, it is easy to install, has exceptional corrosion resistance and doesn't scratch the wheel. Learn more about Plasteel® by visiting www.plasteelwheelweights.com. This website contains lots of information regarding the features and benefits of the product. It also allows you to request a free sample and/or information about Plasteel® and we included video clips demonstrating the main features of Plasteel®. Click on the links below to view these videos.

In addition, Plasteel® has a dedicated toll free number: 1-888-558-7854 that you can use to talk to one of our representative.
